

ACCREDITED FRAGRANCE TRAINING QUALIFICATION

The Fragrance Foundation UK Online Training has been Accredited!

The Fragrance Foundation UK has partnered with Pro Skills Global and has recently had their online training course Accredited and approved by Pro Skills Global.

Broaden your knowledge on all aspects of fragrance, from the ingredient building blocks to how to sell fragrance with this qualification.

With knowledge comes confidence!

The Fragrance Foundation UK course provides direct benefits and skills to assist you when talking to your customers and clients. This training offers relevant, and comprehensible information into the world of fragrance that will create and uplift your skills and appreciation for how to understand fragrance.

The training has been accredited by Proskills Global which means quality of learning has been assured! Securing professional recognition with Proskills Global guarantees that the training is a worthwhile investment to further your career potential.

While our training has always supported the fragrance industry this new recognition directly impacts your career growth as it is a qualification you can add to your experience.

Our fundamental training supports and can elevate other in-house fragrance training programmes by providing module breakdowns and assisted scented training cards that bring training to life. Experience fragrance as it should be experienced.

Advance your career in the fragrance industry today with support and a qualification from The Fragrance Foundation UK!